LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

London, Dec. 8th.
According to a Central News telegram from Tilsit, General Ignatieff is desirous of reviving the Treaty of San Stefano, and will shortly confer with the Courts of Berlin and Vienna on the subject.

Another internal machine, similar to the one found on Saturday last, was discovered on Tuesday in the same spot near the City Court-house. The machine had apparently recently exploded without doing harm.

At a meeting held last night to inaugurate a Conservative Association for Lowestoft and district, Sir Hardinge Giffard, M.P., said he should like to know whether when Lord Hartington joined the present Cabinet he was prepared to believe in everything which had been done by that Cabinet. Their foreign policy had been one of disaster. England was once a great factor in the maintenance of the peace of Europe, but now the foreign Powers did not care what England thought or said regarding European matters. During the eighteen months' existence of the present Government murder had stalked unrebuked throughout Ireland, and whenever the Liberal party were in office Ireland had always been discontented.

The result of the Londonderry election was made known yesterday. Mr. Porter, the Solicitor-General, being returned by a majority of 647 over his Conservative opponent, Sir Samuel Wilson. Mr. Dempster, the Liberal League candidate, who withdrew before the poll, polled 57 votes.

At a meeting of the Central Chamber of Agriculture yesterday a letter was read stating that Mr. Gladstone would endeavour to give a deposition on the subject of local taxation before the assembling of Parliament.

At the Grand Lodge of the Freemasons of England last night the Prince of Wales was again nominated as Grand Master. A vote of condolence with the family of the late President Garfield, who was a member of the Order, was unanimously passed.

The Board of Trade returns show a decrease in the value of the imports during the month of £4,158,598, compared with the corresponding month of last year; but the exports show an increase of nearly £2,000,000, while as compared with the year 1879, the increase is £3,661,209.

An anonymous letter was received in Aberdeen from Glasgow yesterday purporting to give an account of the robbery of the Earl of Crawford's body. The writer says he accompanied a party of five persons one night about the middle of May, and they had a dog-cart in which the body was carried. The writer was minding the horse and cart and fell asleep while the others were at work. They stated they would restore the body. The letter is believed to be a hoax. Mr. Livingstone, of the Balcarras Arms, near Dun Elth, remembers that on the Wednesday of last week a vehicle with three gentlemen, not Scottish, stopped there, and some hours afterwards returned driving furiously through the village.

In the Court of Common Pleas yesterday an important decision was given with reference to the date of operation of the Sunday Closing Act in Wales. A publican at Salford had been fined for keeping open his house on Sunday, the 11th of September, on the ground that the Act at the time had not come into force so far as Salford was concerned, inasmuch as the licensing meeting had been appointed before the passing of the Act. The justices endorsed the view and quashed the conviction.

A gentleman named Skinner, residing at Sheffield, became suddenly ill after dinner, showing symptoms of poisoning, and died shortly afterwards. His housekeeper, with whom he had dined, is also unwell.

At Falmouth, near Huddersfield, an unmarried woman has drowned herself and her three illegitimate children on being told by her father that she and her children must leave his house.

The Hon. T. C. Agar-Robartes, M.P., presided yesterday at the annual dinner in connection with the Lostwithiel Christmas Show, and in his speech said he feared that many of the causes of agricultural depression were permanent, and would, therefore, have to be met by legislation. He advocated full security for the tenant, greater freedom in the cultivation of the soil, and the abolition of the law of distress. All these remedies he hoped for at no distant day, feeling they were such as were just and necessary.

The fifth annual exhibition of the Mining Institute of Cornwall was opened yesterday at Camborne, Mr. R. H. Williams, C.E., the president for the year, presided at the luncheon, and in the evening delivered the annual address, in which he estimated that an expenditure of three-quarters of a million yearly was made in Cornwall in connection with mining among labourers, merchants, and engineers.

The annual show of the Truro Fat Stock Society yesterday was not successful numerically, but the quality of the animals exhibited was good. The President, Mr. J. Hendy, at the dinner, spoke in favour of the old system of turnpike tolls, and Mr. Wesley Grose denounced the Farmers' Alliance. Mr. Brydges Williams, M.P., responding for the city members, said he could not think there was anyone who would desire to go back to the days of Protection, and expressed his conviction that a land bill must come from Mr. Digby Collins considered the Land Bill prepared by the Farmers' Alliance as a chaotic mass of rubbish.

On the Stock Exchange yesterday morning business was decidedly flat. The most made of the hardening tendency of money, and there was a general selling of all securities, railways being most followed. Later in the day, however, a recovery set in and prices were firmer all round. It is rather thought that some is being made on the Stock Exchange of the firmness of the money market, as stock is known to be anything but plentiful. Consols were unchanged, at 99½ to 4.

SOCIETY FOR PREVENTING CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

B. Aires, Jan 7th 1882.

Dear Sir,
In view of the great interest you have taken in the progress of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, it is just you should be enabled to explain to your readers the causes which have produced the delay in taking an active practical stand against the abuse of animals unfortunately so prevalent in this country.

As you are aware, the society was finally organized and its Executive Committee named two months ago, more or less. About three weeks transpired before all the members composing the committee had found time or been induced to send in the acceptance of their appointment in writing, which formally our late worthy President considered essential.

At our first meeting after this prerequisite to the installation of the Executive Committee had been complied with, we could not form a 'quorum.' A second meeting was then called for the 5th Dec., and we finally went to work, reviewed the field of our operations, and discussed the manner in which we should proceed to business.

It was decided at that meeting that we should 1st. Endeavour to secure our recognition by the National Government.

2d. Apply to the Municipality requesting to be appointed or authorized to supervise the application of the 'ordennances' relating to the use and proper treatment of animals.

3rd. That we should provoke the making of more complete Municipal regulations on this subject. It was further stated that our anterior object should be to secure the enactment of a general law by Congress, respecting the 'rights' of animals.

On the 8th of Dec. we held another meeting, at which Messrs Mulcahy M.D., and W.B. Jones were appointed a Committee, to wait on Gen. Sarmiento, to ask him to draw up an address to the National Government, asking for our recognition as a body corporate. Two days later Gen. Sarmiento had made notes which enabled the undersigned to draw up the address, and hand it to the President on the 12th Dec. Our President thought it best to address both the National and Provincial Governments simultaneously on the subject, and requested Sr Guido and Spano to prepare the address to the Provincial Government. The ill-health of this gentleman, extending over a period of two or three weeks, has prevented him from discharging this task, and the more recent illness and death of our much esteemed President has thrown a fresh obstacle in our way, and has further delayed us.

We have good reason to expect that under the active direction of General Sarmiento, who is 1st Vice-President, we shall speedily be enabled to proceed to work.

I am yours etc.
